GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT MORTGAGES

Metro Finance Brokers Ltd has provided you with advice and recommended a mortgage which is suitable for you. Metro Finance Brokers Ltd has also given you a mortgage key facts illustration. If you have any queries about the details please ring us on 0114 270 1444.

FIRST CHARGE MORTGAGE

A first charge mortgage is the type of mortgage most people mean when they talk about mortgages. It is a loan secured on your house.

The Government's 'Money Advice Service' says:

A mortgage is a loan taken out to buy property or land. Most run for 25 years but the term can be shorter or longer.

The loan is 'secured' against the value of your home until it's paid off. If you can't keep up your repayments the lender can repossess (take back) your home and sell it so they get their money back.

SECOND CHARGE MORTGAGE

A second charge mortgage is one you take out when you want to increase your borrowing, which you could do by remortgaging or getting a second charge mortgage or getting a personal loan.

The Government's 'Money Advice Service' says:

A second charge mortgage allows you to use any equity you have in your home as security against another loan. It means you will essentially have two mortgages on your home

If you don't have a large early repayment charge on your mortgage and you have some equity in your home and your circumstances haven't changed, you'll almost certainly be better off remortgaging or taking out a further advance from the same lender.

Metro Finance Brokers Ltd does not offer second charge mortgages.

A COMPREHENSIVE RANGE OF FIRST CHARGE MORTGAGES - What does this mean?

Metro Finance Brokers Ltd offers a comprehensive range of first charge mortgages from across the market, but not deals that you can only obtain by going direct to a lender and not second charge mortgages.

In doing so, Metro Finance Brokers Ltd complies with the FCA's requirement to consider a sufficiently large number of regulated mortgage contracts which are generally available from the market .

Metro Finance Brokers Ltd considers a very large proportion of the first charge mortgage market, enough to be representative of the whole market. That does not mean that Metro Finance Brokers Ltd considers every first charge mortgage on the market. For example we do not consider mortgages from Nat West.

COMMISSION

Metro Finance Brokers Ltd will receive a commission from your mortgage lender and the full amount is shown to you on the official documentation describing your mortgage. You have a right to ask for information on the commissions paid by different lenders and if you want that information please ask us.

REPAYMENT OF MORTGAGE

Capital and interest repayment

The monthly repayment pays off all of the amount borrowed together with its associated interest in the chosen time period. Provided all payments are made on time and as required by the lender, at the end of the term the amount borrowed will have been repaid.

Interest only repayment

The monthly repayment pays off the interest only. The amount borrowed remains outstanding at the end of the term and must be repaid. If you choose this type of mortgage it is your responsibility to make additional arrangements to pay off the capital borrowed eg through an endowment policy, individual savings account plan, pension plan or other investment vehicle. If you do not make suitable arrangements to pay off the capital borrowed you will have to sell your property to pay off the capital sum.

Term

The term you choose to repay the mortgage will depend, amongst other things, upon your age and personal circumstances. If you are considering having a mortgage term that continues past the age you retire make sure you will be able to afford the payments then.

INTEREST RATES

Variable

The rate of interest varies from time to time in line with market conditions and interest rates generally, for example as the Bank of England base rate changes or as the LIBOR (London inter bank offer rate) rate changes.

Fixed rate

The rate of interest is fixed for a specified period of time then a variable rate applies afterwards.

Discounted rate

The rate of interest operates in the same way as a variable rate but with a discount (ie reduced rate) for a set period of time. After the discount period the variable rate applies.

Tracker

The rate of interest is usually linked to the Bank of England or LIBOR base rate (the underlying rate) and is set at a fixed percentage in relation to that rate. The actual rate paid will rise or fall in line with the underlying rate and will always be at the set percentage in relation to the underlying rate.

Interest rate changes

Interest rates may go up or down over time. Make sure you can afford to maintain your payments now and in the future. Your home may be repossessed if you do not keep up repayments on your mortgage.

CREDIT SEARCH

During the course of approving your mortgage your credit history will be searched with a credit reference agency.

DEBT CONSOLIDATION

If you are considering remortgaging to consolidate unsecured debts replacing ,for example, unsecured debts on personal loans or credit cards with a mortgage, you should be aware that your new loan ie your mortgage, is secured on your property for the lifetime of the mortgage. Your home may be repossessed if you do not keep up repayments on your mortgage.

You need to consider whether this is the way you wish to deal with your consolidation of unsecured debts and perhaps seek advice ,for example, from a Citizens Advice Bureau.

INSURANCES

Unless the key facts illustration says otherwise the lender to whom the quote relates does not require you to take out any insurance with themselves as a condition of the mortgage.

However all lenders require that you have buildings insurance.

You may want to consider whether or not you need accident, sickness and unemployment insurance to protect your mortgage payments and life insurance to pay off the mortgage if you die.

You can arrange your buildings, life and accident, sickness and unemployment insurances with the insurer of your choice.

The lender may require you to pay a higher lending charge because you wish to borrow a high percentage of the value of the property. This is used by the lender to obtain mortgage indemnity insurance as extra security for the lender. If it is required it will be shown on your quotation. It can normally be added to the mortgage if you wish instead of making a payment at the time of completion. If it cannot be added to the mortgage the key facts illustration will show that. If you do not keep up your mortgage payments and the property has to be repossessed, the indemnity insurance will not protect you if the property is sold by the lender for less than the amount owed. You will remain liable for all sums owing and insurers have a right to recover this amount from you.

CHANGES IN CIRCUMSTANCES

A mortgage is a long term financial commitment and you should consider how changes in your circumstances may have an impact on your mortgage. The following are some examples:

Early repayment

If you repay your mortgage early eg in the first few years there may be additional repayments to make. The key facts illustration shows these as early repayment charges.

Joint mortgages

If you take out a mortgage with another person ie a joint mortgage, you are both responsible for the mortgage. If one of the joint applicants ceases to make their share of the payments, for example, if your relationship were to come to an end, the mortgage still has to be paid and both parties remain individually liable for the whole amount outstanding. This means that whatever joint applicants agree between themselves about paying the mortgage each of them is liable to the lender for the whole mortgage.

PROPERTY VALUATION

The property you choose needs to be valued to ensure it is worth the amount you are paying for it. To get a mortgage a basic valuation is required, the valuer assesses its market value, its value for insurance purposes and any essential repairs he spots.

However in this basic valuation the valuer does not carry out a rigorous inspection of all parts of the property and although he will try to find any defects you have no 'comeback' if he misses anything.

If you feel after looking at the property yourself that there is a need for a more complete inspection then you can choose a 'Homebuyer's report' instead of the basic valuation. This type of survey gives a basic valuation (as before) plus more inspection and a better chance that any defects will be spotted although there is little 'comeback' if anything is missed.

For maximum peace of mind you could have a 'full structural survey' which is a basic valuation plus a thorough and complete inspection of the property by a professional surveyor or architect. If such surveys miss defects you have some 'comeback'.

The relative costs of the three types of valuation vary but as a guide ,your quotation shows the precise cost of the basic valuation. A 'homebuyers report' would be around twice that cost and a full structural survey around 4 to 5 times that cost.
